Second Ange Nursery School Opens at Haneda Airport

Ange Nursery School (operator: Ange Co., Ltd.), which opened at Haneda Airport's Domestic Terminal 1 in 2007, will open a second branch on April 1, 2017.

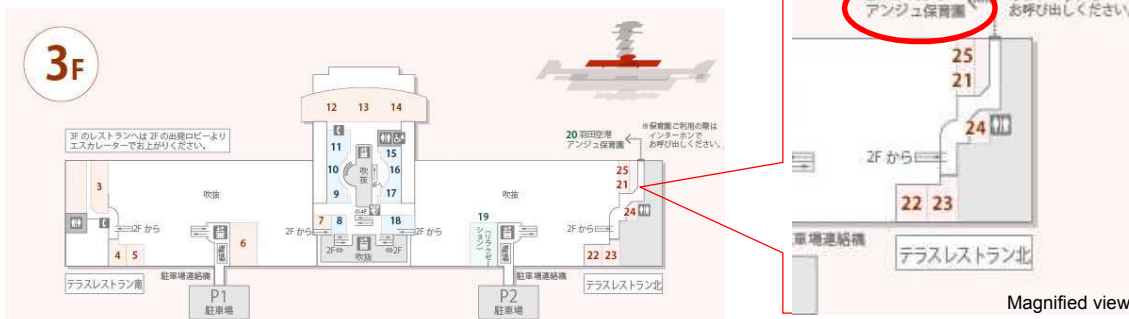

Haneda Airport No. 2 Ange Nursery School (approx. 520 m², 80 spaces) is located next door to the existing Ange Nursery School (approx. 1,080 m², 120 spaces). Combined, the two nurseries will have a larger capacity, making it more accessible to residents living near the airport and airport and airline employees.

The new nursery's décor features pictures of airplanes and other cute, pop designs that will offer excitement to the children in its care.

The nursery room and exercise area face the passenger terminal runway, so children can enjoy watching airplanes take off and land. The nursery looks forward to caring for your children.
