Halal-Certified Restaurant “Honolu Premier Air HANEDA” to Open at Haneda Airport Terminal 3

Japan Airport Terminal Co., Ltd. and Tokyo International Air Terminal Corporation will open a halal-certified Japanese restaurant, Honolu Premier Air HANEDA, on November 10, 2025, in Edo Koji on the 4th floor of Haneda Airport Terminal 3.

In response to the growing demand for inbound travelers, and to further enhance the terminal's functionality, the new restaurant aims to provide a more satisfying and reassuring airport experience for Muslim guests — a community that represents approximately 1.9 billion people worldwide.*.

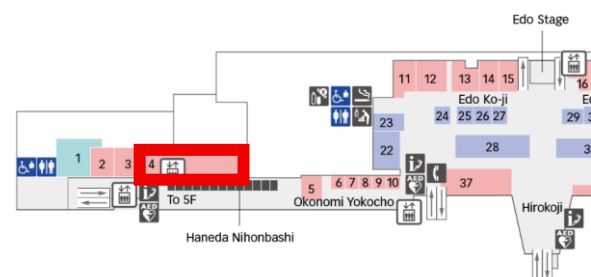

The menu embraces diversity in food culture by offering not only halal-certified dishes but also several vegan options, creating an inclusive dining environment where travelers from around the world can enjoy Japanese cuisine with peace of mind.

Haneda Airport remains committed to promoting diversity and inclusion, respecting various cultures and values, and continuing to develop an airport where all guests feel welcome and comfortable.

【About Honolu】

The brand has expanded its presence, primarily in major Japanese cities such as Tokyo and Osaka. This year, it opened its first overseas location in Malaysia. Honolu obtained halal certification in 2020 by using only halal ingredients and ensuring that no non-halal foods or utensils come into contact with them. The brand has received high praise on an international halal information platform and continues to attract the attention of international travelers.
